TASTING INFO GUIDE

Choosing the right menu is an important decision for your wedding day. If you would like to sample menu options before you finalize your selection, we are happy to help! This guide will help you understand when and how to schedule a tasting.

Scheduling

We do our best to accommodate your preferred tasting date and time.
We schedule tastings Monday - Friday, 11am - 4pm.

When you are ready to schedule your tasting, we will need to know the number of guests attending, the menu items you would like to sample, and your availability for scheduling.

Payment

You are not booked until the tasting contract has been e-signed and full payment has been received.

Payments can be made over the phone via credit card.

If you decide to book us for your wedding day, we will deduct up to $100 dollars of your tasting fee from your final wedding catering invoice.

Tasting FAQs

Q: Are there any items we cannot try during a tasting?

A: There are some items that cannot be made for small groups. The 2 most commonly requested items that cannot be ordered for a tasting are prime rib and beef tenderloin. Due to how these items are prepared, the fewest number of servings we can offer of these items is 20.

Q: Can we customize the tasting? (i.e. add a salad or an additional appetizer?)

A: Yes, we will be happy to add items so that you can taste exactly what you would like to.

Q: My fiance and I want to attend a tasting. Can we each try different entrees and different sides?

A: Our pricing is for each tasting attendee to try the same menu items, not for individual menus.

Q: My fiance and I want to attend a tasting. Can we order for 1 person and share a plate?

A: Tastings require a 2 person minimum.

Q: Why do tastings cost more than the per person charge on your menu?

A: The per person charge on our menu is for large groups. Tastings cost more than the listed menu price because our chefs prepare small quantities just for you.

Q: I have a friend/family member that would like to join us for our tasting, but they don't want to try the food. Can they still join?

A: Yes! Please let us know in advance if someone will be joining you, and we will ensure they have a seat at the table.
